

DC/SLA President-Elect Report, April 2014

Program Planning Committee Members: Deena Adelman, Joyce Baker, Eileen Deegan, Lila Faulkner, Angela Kent, Zeinab Mansour, Victor Monti, Abi Morgan, Kelli Peterson, Lois Steinberg

Feedback Survey for Programs

- Created through SurveyMonkey under SLA's Leadership account
- Will use same survey for every program, but can revise if needed
- Sent out for 2 programs in March (see <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/mmnight> for example)

March Programs

- March 11 webinar: Everyday Leadership for Special and Solo Librarians—presented by Solo Librarians Division and NY Chapter, co-sponsored by DC/SLA
 - Attendance: Total: 56/104, DC/SLA: 6/13
- March 12 at MLK Library: Reigniting Your Library Career—joint program with DCLA
 - Attendance: 32 (13 DC/SLA, 15 DCLA, 2 speakers, 2 TRAK reps)
 - Feedback summary: 6 respondents; overall: 4.3/5; well-planned, liked having the TRAK reps there, topic not completely covered
- March 20 at Leadership Directories: Librarians in Tinseltown: A Night of Scandal and Mystery
 - Attendance: 22 (including 3 Leadership Directories employees)
 - Feedback summary: 8 respondents; overall: 4.75/5; fun, but awkward with conference table and need more time to get to know people as their real selves

Upcoming Programs

- April
 - April 17 at Department of Commerce Research Library: Librarians Fostering Learning and Innovation (IRC)
 - April 23 Non-fiction Book Club
 - April 24 Joint Spring Workshop—committee led by Trudie Root and Layla Heimlich
 - April 29 at Mad Hatter: Speed Networking (Employment and Career Resources Committee)
- May
 - May 7 at LexisNexis: Crafting a Personal Brand with Chris Olson presentation/webinar and workshop
 - May 12 at GW, Paul Himmelfarb Health Sciences Library: “Dealing” with Information: Conducting Successful Negotiations
 - May 13 webinar: The Tools of Influence for Special and Solo Librarians, presented by Solo Division & NY Chapter, co-sponsored by DC/SLA